Pressing this weekend

Stop by the winery this weekend (Saturday) and bring your tasting glass out back. We will be pressing out a few tons of Noiret and some Chambourcin as well. Taste the wine right from the press (it'll be pretty darn 'green' but for those fans of Noiret it's a great experience). Plus you get to see part of the wine-making process as well.

Just don't get too close if you're wearing any nice clothes...

Harvest Festival

October 15th, 2011 from 12-4pm

It was pointed out many times that I forgot to include the time and date for our Harvest Fest. I am sorry for that, a bit tired these days. So here it is, plus a recap of the information on the festivities.

Also, for all you staff members reading this, yes if you are working you must wear a costume (if I have to then you have to as well!!!!). It should be a fun day and a memorable one.

Thanks for bearing with me. Hope to see you all on October 15th at the winery from 12-4pm!!!!

This is our first harvest festival, and we would like it to be memorable for all who visit. We want to see our friends and neighbors (and those who haven't stopped in for a visit yet) smile and enjoy the fall season, so come on down for an afternoon of family fun!!!

This event is for families, all of the festivities are aimed at the kids (or the kids in all of us);

- Bounce house (from 12-4pm)
- wagon ride through the vineyard
- face painting
- pumpkin painting
- cider and doughnuts (courtesy of Wegmans)
- Alpacas from Hemlock Hills Alpaca Farm
- and Grape Stomping!!!!

Tickets are $5 per child (15 and under) OR max $10 per family, adults are free. Souvenir tee shirts will be available ($6.00) for the kids. Deer Run staff will be in costume to add to the fun. The ticket price covers all of the activities listed above.
